Martin Schwab provides advice to companies and entrepreneurs as well as private clients in all areas of notarial activity, with a particular focus on complex transactions and cross-border projects.

He founded his first own companies during his studies at the Ludwig-Maximilians-University in Munich. After completing his doctorate in European stock corporation law, he began his career in international law firms, specializing in corporate and tax law before being appointed notary in his hometown of Munich in 2009.

Through his work in Los Angeles, London and Milan, Martin Schwab has gained extensive professional experience in diverse cultural settings. He regularly contributes to legal journals and standard handbooks, including Lutter Reorganization Law, Munich Handbook of Company Law Volume VIII (Reorganization Law) and Beck'sches Form Book on Inheritance Law. As a speaker, he shares his expertise with tax advisors, legal professionals and notaries for many years.
